

I have applied to 100 jobs in Finland and have not received a single interview invitation

If you are applying for positions that do not require Finnish, it's likely there are hundreds of applications just like yours. To stand out, make sure you check your CV for the basic mistakes that highly-educated professionals often make in Finland.

- ☐ I have crafted my CV for a particular role
- ☐ My CV is a maximum 2 pages long
- ☐ I mention accomplishments and not just tasks
- ☐ My papers are saved in PDF
- ☐ I have a clear 1-2 sentence summary
- ☐ I used a clean CV design
- ☐ I have checked the grammar in my CV
- ☐ I crafted this CV for a position that fits my profile
- ☐ It is I, and not ChatGPT, who wrote this application
- ☐ My CV is free of irrelevant information
- ☐ My contact information is correct
- ☐ I mentioned my level of proficiency in the Finnish language

To learn more about these points, check out the full guide: 11 CV Mistakes to Avoid in Finland.